

Paris Agreement & country readiness – new research on ways forward

UNFCCC side event

Wednesday, 9 November 2016, 15:00 – 16:30

Room Mediterranean (300)

Live broadcast on UNFCCC Climate Change Studio channel:

<https://goo.gl/R8xNRW>

15.00-15.05	Welcome by Meelis Münt, Deputy Secretary General of the Ministry of the Environment, Republic of Estonia
15.05-15.15	Estonia's collaboration with the small islands states in the South Pacific (Meelis Münt, Ministry of the Environment, Estonia)
15.15 -15.25	Green Growth for Blue Economies: The future of the Pacific Islands by (François Martel, Secretary General of the Pacific Islands Development Forum)
15.25 – 15.35	Reducing carbon emissions and improving Climate Resilience in Transport-dependant Pacific Islands (Annela Anger-Kraavi, University of Cambridge & Member of Climate Strategies)
15.35-15.45	Discussion
15.45 – 15.55	Countries' readiness to implement the Paris Agreement (Henry Derwent, Climate Strategies)
15.55 – 16.05	Can experience with peace and reconciliation processes help address historical responsibility within international climate negotiations? (Sonja Klinsky, Arizona State University & Member of Climate Strategies)
16.05 – 16.15	Discussion including stakeholders
16.15 – 16.30	Final reflections

Event moderated by Andrzej Błachowicz, Climate Strategies